

ARBuckle INDICTED FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Business Growing Better All Over the Country

AMERICAN NAMED TO INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE

JOHN BASSETT MOORE ELECTED BY LEAGUE AT GENEVA.

NAME CONFIRMED

Nine Others Selected: Moore Is Professor in Columbia.

[By Associated Press.] Geneva.—John Bassett Moore of the United States, was elected a judge of the international court of justice, by the assembly of the League of Nations, on the 13th of September.

Members of the court which began here at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Dr. Rafael Altamira Y. Croiza of Spain; Dr. Puy Barbosa of Brazil; Viscount Robert Finlay of Great Britain; Dr. Alejandro Alvarez of Chile; Dr. Antonio S. De Bustamante of Cuba; Dr. Andre Weiss of France; Dr. Toran Oda of Japan; Dr. E. T. C. Loder of Holland and Commodore Dionisio Anzilotti of Italy were elected by the assembly on the first ballot.

The council of the league, which met at the secretariat simultaneously with the meeting of the assembly in Reformation hall, confirmed the assembly's choice of Mr. Moore, Viscount Finlay, Dr. Weiss, Dr. Oda and Signor Anzilotti, who consequently were definitely elected to the court.

PROFESSOR OF DIPLOMACY AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

New York.—John Bassett Moore announced at his residence here Wednesday that he would accept election to the international court of justice. He is in his 61st year. His record has been a varied public service involving international relations.

He was a law clerk of the department of state in 1885; third assistant secretary of state from 1885 to 1891; assistant secretary of state, 1891; secretary and counsel of the Spanish-American peace commission in 1898; counselor of the state department in 1904 and is vice-chairman of the international high commission organized at the Pan-American financial conference in 1915.

He has written many books dealing with international relations.

Gas Blast Kills Two; Many Hurt

Philadelphia.—Two are dead, several reported missing and 14 others injured as a result of an explosion Wednesday morning in an attempted oil delivery. Six convicts escaped. Three were recaptured.

Schiller was shot by a guard as he jumped from the window after the explosion. The trio then cut a hole in the roof.

The convicts who escaped were Edward Thorne, Joseph Stepha, the latter said to be a well known Chicago gunman. Stepha fled the lock on his cell door, then released the other two by picking the locks on their cells. The trio then cut a hole in the roof.

Stepha was reported to have escaped on a passing freight train.

Convict Shot Dead Trying to Escape Prison

Jettie, Ill.—Thomas Schiller, a convict at the penitentiary, killed Wednesday morning in an attempted oil delivery. Six convicts escaped. Three were recaptured.

Schiller was shot by a guard as he jumped from the window after the explosion. The trio then cut a hole in the roof.

The convicts who escaped were Edward Thorne, Joseph Stepha, the latter said to be a well known Chicago gunman. Stepha fled the lock on his cell door, then released the other two by picking the locks on their cells. The trio then cut a hole in the roof.

Reports from Many Sections Tell of Improved Conditions

Industry Speeds Up, More Men at Work

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York.—The industrial situation in America has passed its crisis, and is showing an upward trend in many lines of business, and employers are beginning to add to their forces, reducing the extent of idleness, it was indicated in dispatches received by The Tribune last night from its correspondents in the chief industrial centers.

Boston appeared to lead the business revival with reports of great activity in the textile industries particularly. Optimistic reports came from Pittsburgh, where mills are opening up again after long shutdowns, and Detroit and Toledo report the taking on of new hands in the automobile plants, although this still appears to be very gradual in Detroit.

In New York State 5,000 men have been put back to work in the last few days at Syracuse and 2,000 at Elmira, although Rochester reports little if any improvement in conditions of employment.

Chicago is feeling the improvement, though in less degree than most of the Eastern industrial centers. Steel mills in South Chicago are increasing production and thousands of men are expected to find employment in the building trades there in the near future.

In many places retail trade is showing a substantial gain, indicating that increased buying is coming coincidentally with the return of workers to their jobs.

The only really discouraging report came from Baltimore, where it was said that the army of unemployed had reached 23,000. Baltimore employers, in many cases, however, were trying to alleviate the situation by giving part-time employment to their forces.

Business Recovery: Positive signs of business recovery have been furnished by the commissioner of labor statistics, Secretary Davis declared, adding:

"Some of those signs have an aspect of their own. I put them out for others to interpret as they please. But one must have his head very much on the alert to notice the growing prevalence of silk hosiery and the use of silks in general."

A stir was caused all over the country by the statement said, "when Senator McCormick called for the actual figures on current unemployment by the bureau of labor were found to be 5,735,000. These figures stand as the best estimate available, but they need to be read in relation to the situation of seven years ago as well as in the light of the facts of today."

Ratio of Idle Less. "Take this fact for instance. In 1914 the number of persons in the United States employed as wage earners or working for some one other than themselves, reached eighteen or twenty millions. This was outside of agricultural occupations. The ratio of unemployed to the total of workers today is thus less than the ratio of unemployed to the total of workers in 1914 and by a wide margin."

"Nothing is to be gained by sticking our heads in the sand and ignoring the gravity of the present unemployment situation. Neither can we profit by attributing the facts here to one salient fact to be kept in mind—probably not more than (Continued on page 4)

Slayer, Cornered, Blows Out Brains

[By Associated Press.] Hibbing, Minn.—John Webb, who shot and killed three members of the Hibbing police force last Thursday night, shot and killed himself at 7:45 a. m. Wednesday in a shack one mile east of Hibbing, when surrounded by a police posse.

Search for Webb had been prosecuted without pause since he shot Chief of Police Daniel Hayes, Detective Cassidy and Patrolman William Koert when they went to arrest him on a warrant charging a statutory offense against his young daughter.

Early Wednesday several Hibbing policemen came on the log cabin east of here and concluding Webb might be secreted within, approached cautiously from all sides. They saw some one moving about within as they got nearer and when they were about 200 feet from the cabin, Webb peered at them through a window.

When Webb saw the policemen he stepped back from the window and blew his brains out with the same 30-30 rifle he had used in slaying the three policemen.

Arrangements immediately were made for return of the body to Hibbing.

HOLD EX-CONVICT CURRAN TO OPPOSE ON LIQUOR CHARGE HYLAN AT POLLS

Meyers, Given 18 Years for Murder, and 3 Others Arrested.

[By Associated Press.] New York.—H. W. H. Curran, coal-miner-republican, now president of the Borough of Manhattan, will be Mayor J. R. Hyland's opponent at the polls.

Curran won the republican nomination in the primary Tuesday, polling 31,084 more votes than the combined votes of his three rivals. His total vote was 20,774, while E. H. La Guardia, president of the board of aldermen, his nearest opponent, polled 27,880. Judge R. L. Haskell, who advocated a referendum on prohibition, polled 24,448, and former state Senator W. M. Bennett was last with 4,470.

While the republican campaign had some verbal thrills, it remained for the democrats to furnish the real election heat.

James J. Hines, who fought Murphy, Tammany boss and who sought the democratic nomination for president of the borough of Manhattan, was defeated by J. Miller, Tammany's candidate.

U.S. Sends List of Meet Topics

Washington.—The American government has sent to the governments of all the powers invited to participate in the conference on the limitation of armaments and disarmament a list of the topics suggested for discussion.

BLOW P. O. SAFE. Waterford, Wis.—Cracksmen last night blew the safe in the postoffice, obtaining war savings stamps, cash and stamps approximately $50 in value. No trace of the thieves has been found.

Meyers has his sentence commuted several years ago and was released upon good behavior. Wednesday marked his first appearance in court since 1912.

Bride at 14; Mother at 17; Twice Married. Omaha, Neb.—Mrs. Earl M. Rowley became a bride at 14 and a mother at 17. She has been married twice. By her first husband, she had 20 children. Four years ago, he died and she married a man 20 years her junior and since then two children have been born to them.

IRISH ENVOYS TO PROPOSED CONFAB APPROVED BY DAIL

ARTHUR GRIFFITH HEADS DELEGATION TO INVERNESS.

ACTION TENTATIVE

Chosen to Carry on "Possible Negotiations Which May Follow Irish Reply."

[By Associated Press.] Dublin.—Appointment of plenipotentiaries to the proposed conference at Inverness with British representatives, to discuss settlement of the Irish question, was approved by the Dail Eireann at its session here Wednesday. The Dail unanimously approved the reply to the recent proposals of Mr. Lloyd George, the British prime minister, regarding Irish peace negotiations. The appointments approved follow:

Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein and foreign minister in the Dail cabinet, chairman.

Michael Collins, finance minister.

Robert C. Barton, one of the leading figures in the preliminary negotiations.

Eamonn J. Duggan, Sinn Fein member of parliament and a leading figure in arrangement of the Irish trade.

George Davan Duffy, representative of Sinn Fein abroad.

Dublin.—The Dail's official bulletin announcing approval of the five plenipotentiaries says this was done "in view of a possible conference with representatives of the British government."

The Dail plenipotentiaries, it was explained, were not appointed to go to Inverness in response to the negotiations which may or may not follow.

Continued on page 3.

Third Man Found; Name Is Walker, Wrong on Wilder

[By Associated Press.] Chicago.—Milton H. Walker, former garage foreman and a close friend of Harvey W. Church, was arrested Wednesday and proclaimed as the "third man" in the handcuff murder of Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl A. Ausmus, automobile salesman.

Church and Leon Parks, who was a watchman at the same garage where Walker worked, have signed confessions to their part in the killing of the two men last week.

Wilder was denied entirely that he had any hand in the plot, by which Church, Parks and the mysterious "third man" hoped to obtain a new automobile and sell it, dividing the profits.

Wilder was named by Church and Parks in their signed confessions, but police are not convinced that he is really the third man.

Parks' Confession. Forced by Church. Chicago.—With the signed confessions of Harvey W. Church and Leon Parks implicating Clarence Wilder in the murders of Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl A. Ausmus, automobile salesman and demonstrator, detectives Wednesday resumed the questioning of Wilder in an effort to obtain a confession from him.

Wilder was taken into custody early Wednesday. But still maintained his innocence. Confessions of Church and Parks are in the hands of the grand jury which started in (Continued on page 3.)

FASCINATING IS MYSTERY IN THIS TRAGEDY

Here comes Sherlock Holmes with a job on his hands.

ACTOR WAS AT FATTY'S PARTY

Lowell Sherman Is One of the Motion Picture Stars who Attended the Party in Fatty Arbuckle's Rooms in a San Francisco Hotel.

Lowell Sherman. Lowell Sherman is one of the motion picture stars who attended the party in Fatty Arbuckle's rooms in a San Francisco hotel.

He has frequently appeared in stock in Milwaukee.

Continued on page 3.

TRANSIT TAX CUT IN HALF BY VOTE

Transit Senate Committee Wields Knife; House Rates on Drunks Adopted.

[By Associated Press.] Washington.—Retention for the calendar year 1922 of the transportation taxes on freight, passenger and Pullman accommodations but at one-half the present rates was agreed upon Wednesday by the senate finance committee.

The committee also voted finally to amend the provision of the house bill so as to retain the full tax on express packages and oil transported by pipe line.

The house rates on cereal beverages and other soft drinks were adopted, but it was explained that some of these might be subject to change.

The committee passed over the inheritance tax and decided to take up a later session Wednesday.

Sales taxes on candy, jewelry, furs, sporting goods and a number of other items.

RE-AMPUTATE ARM OF WORLD WAR VET

Second Operation Performed on Timpany—Another Veteran in Hospital.

Two operations were performed in Mercy hospital on Tuesday afternoon on George Timpany, an A. P. Robinson, Janesville, A. E. Robinson, who suffered physical injuries in active service.

George Timpany as a member of company B, of the 32nd division, recruited from Port Jackson, had a leg amputated at the knee in the fighting around Chateau Thierry. He was hit by a high explosive shell on August 4, the lower part of the arm being severed.

Hasty operations in France left the arm in an unsatisfactory condition to the Janesville youth. To stop pain Dr. Wayne A. Munn re-amputated the arm, removing additional bones and doing considerable surgery work on the nerves.

Mr. Timpany was expected to be fast recovering from the operation by the hospital authorities and the members of the family Wednesday morning.

A. W. Robinson, an officer, up on for appendicitis, an affliction resulting from service with the colors during the war.

Actor Held in Jail on Murder Charge Hanging Over Him

Speedy Trial for Roscoe Promised by the San Francisco District Attorney—Murder Charge Follows Grand Jury's Indictment.

[By Associated Press.] San Francisco.—The way was cleared Wednesday for a speedy trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, on one of two charges which hold that he is responsible for the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, after she had been subjected to an alleged attack in his rooms in the St. Francis hotel.

The first charge is murder, preferred Monday by Mrs. Bambina Maud Delmont, who said she was in an adjoining room at the time of the alleged attack. The second is manslaughter, returned as a true bill by the grand jury Tuesday night, and which will become a formal indictment when it is filed in court Thursday.

The authorities are discussing Wednesday the charge of which they will bring the actor to trial. District Attorney Brady is of the opinion that the murder charge should stand. If Arbuckle is cleared of that charge, in the event he is tried on it, he must still face the manslaughter charge.

Show Girls Called. The coroner's inquest which started Monday was continued Wednesday with Miss Zeh Prevost and Alice Blake, show girls, scheduled as witnesses. They attested, in statements to the coroner and the grand jury, that they were present at the Labor Day party in the St. Francis hotel, in which Miss Rappe is alleged to have received the injuries that resulted in her death four days later.

The women's vigilance committee, organized to assist the moral forces of the city in maintaining the honor of the courts and of the administrative bodies, is expected, at its regular meeting Wednesday, to take up the Arbuckle matter and determine the stand it will take.

Will Fight to Hold Murder Charge

[By Associated Press.] San Francisco.—Two charges have been placed against Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, motion picture star, in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, film actress. The San Francisco county grand jury Tuesday night voted an indictment charging manslaughter, but District Attorney Brady, declared that prosecution on a murder complaint already under way in the justice court would not be halted.

The grand jury indictment does not come within the province of the justice court, but goes direct to the superior court where it is returnable on Thursday. A warrant for the film comedian's arrest on the manslaughter charge is expected to be issued Friday, the district attorney said.

Murder Charge, Also. The murder complaint was sworn to Monday by Mrs. Bambina Delmont. (Continued on page 3)

IRONWOOD VOTES 5 CENT CARFARE

[By Associated Press.] Ironwood, Mich.—The city council of Ironwood Tuesday night voted to reduce street car fares of Ironwood from six to five cents. This is the second reduction in three months. The fares were advanced to seven cents last fall.

ORGANIZED LABOR OPPOSES AUCTION OF UNEMPLOYED

[By Associated Press.] New York.—Plans of Urban Leodow to repeat here the "auction" of unemployed which he staged on Boston Common met with opposition Wednesday from various organizations interested in the welfare of the jobless. Leodow would get a "warm reception" if he attempted to hold them here.

Such an exhibition would only make trouble and would accomplish no useful purpose, said Bird Cowie, commissioner of public welfare and head of the mayor's committee on unemployment.

Hugh F. Payne of the American Federation of Labor declared labor was opposed to the auctions and that Leodow would get a "warm reception" if he attempted to hold them here.

James F. Kiernan, department commander of the Veterans of Foreign wars, also joined in the protest.

THE WEATHER

IN WISCONSIN. Partly cloudy Wednesday night and Thursday, with probable showers in south portion Wednesday night; somewhat cooler in east and south portions Wednesday night.

Janesville thermometer readings, Wednesday, Sept. 14:

FARMERS' EYES ON MILK CO-OP FIGHT

Producers Here Deeply Interested in Kittle's New Efforts.

Future of the Chicago milk marketing company is dependent upon the retention of the new board of directors, which has made radical moves in the business affairs of the company since its formation. It is apparent that the old guard headed by J. H. Love, president, is trying to wipe out the new executive committee by securing the election of officers who will work in full harmony with the old policy.

It is now proposed to have all directors of the marketing company offer their resignations at the proposed stockholders' meeting in October, allowing for an entirely new set of officers and directors to be elected, who will work in full harmony with the new policy.

Governor Fenech has been secured as a legal representative of the old faction and, according to a published report, has advised Kittle et al. that they could not be re-elected.

New Sales Agent

The published statements indicate that the two factions, seeking control of the pool and the paying producers, are at a deadlock, neither giving in to the other's claims. So a new slate of men is proposed.

Since the new directors assumed control they placed A. W. Vassan, former Nestle's food company sales manager, in charge of the marketing company sales.

"With him every sale is a profit," declared K. K. Overton, Rock county director. "He started selling skim milk at a cent a pound profit, and sold condensed milk at a profit, not a loss to the company. We aim to have our sales work effective so that there will not be any more loss of money for all the producers."

Illness of J. H. Kittle

It was claimed that Kittle sold condensed milk at a loss, lost on cheese and made contractors so low that losses had to be made up from the profits obtained in the sale of fluid milk. Analysis of his sales methods is contained in the published report.

It is alleged the financial statements were misleading, and that the company's financial status was not properly shown. The advisory committee which now cooperates with the board of directors is composed of Adam C. Veatch, Harvard, Ill.; H. B. McDonough, Hampshire, Ill.; F. N. Ames, Brooklyn, Wis.; C. Larson, Chicago; W. T. Greene, Oshkosh; George Keller, Naperville, Ill.; and A. P. Murak, Burlington, Wis.

Kick on Prices

The $1.00 price of milk has resulted in a storm of criticism in Southern Wisconsin. It is claimed that the price of milk producers, not members of the cooperative pool, who have been free riders on the high prices such as $2.25 without paying the spread.

As ever the problem before the marketing company is stupor milk. Dropping of the price, declared K. K. Overton, prevented a spread of 55 per cent. during September. The long time the organization has maintained a profit to the man outside," he stated.

Demand One Price

The break in the administration of the pool has been a severe blow to the future success. More than 6,000 of the 17,000 farmer members have withdrawn, lacking confidence. However, the new directors looking hard have managed to bolster up renewed confidence and membership is declared to be on the gain once again.

Two want a policy of all profit from milk and no spread," declared Director Overton on Wednesday. "We are going to have that basis of quit. There will not be any zoning, whereby the producer near Chicago gets more than we do in Rock county."

Outcome In Doubt

The outcome of the fight for control is important to the dairy interests of Southern Wisconsin. It vitally affects Rock county and every farmer who produces milk.

Each and every time there has been a marketing company meeting speakers have been anxious to talk on the need of business efficiency in the operation of the pool and thus far always with the same results, general dissatisfaction.

Seek New Manager

It is proposed that state changes have been made from the old regime, it is explained.

Most of the members in Rock county are remaining in the organization, waiting their duties and waiting developments. The next three months will decide whether the Chicago Marketing company, a $2,000,000 cooperative corporation for an organized milk business, will succeed or burst the bubble.

It is understood that President J. H. Love will be requested to resign this fall and the directors are now looking for a new general manager.

"We want a high class business man, we don't care about his salary, we are after successful results," declared Director Overton.

Evansville

Mrs. L. F. Miller, Phone 208-2, Correspondent.

Evansville.—The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Brown, South Second Street.

Mrs. A. French, Danville, Ill., Mrs. L. Brown and daughter, Miss Jean, Indiana Harbor, Ill., Mrs. Frank Gaver, Monroe, Mrs. W. Gaver and son, Ovidius, Oshkosh, were guests Monday at the homes of W. D. and O. E. Brown.

Miss Florence Seilk left Monday to visit in North Dakota.

John Kennedy, Chicago, formerly of Evansville, has returned and is employed in the post office. His family will move here as soon as they can find a home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bodenberger have returned after visiting relatives in Milwaukee, Waukesha and Burlington. Mrs. Bodenberger's mother, Mrs. John Murray, and sisters, Elizabeth, Burlington, and Mrs. John Miller, Appleton, returned with them for a visit.

There are always VANDERBILT AD columns. Most people place them through our Evansville Branch Office, the PIONEER DRUG STORE.

Advertisement.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw and Wayne Shaw and family, who are touring to California, that they are having a pleasant trip. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fiedler, Gales, Ill., formerly of Evansville, enroute.

Mrs. T. R. Travis and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, Evansville, Ill., who called here by the death of the former's brother, returned home Tuesday.

The public schools opened Monday with a large enrollment. Several last year's graduates entered high school in the commercial department.

Miss Elizabeth Meakin is ill at her home on North Second street.

Miss Hazel Van Vorster, Janesville, returned home Tuesday after visiting relatives here.

Fred Howe was in Madison on business Monday.

Mrs. Emma Scholtz spent Tuesday in Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith and Mrs. Harriet Parris were guests Monday at the home of Frank Clifford, Janesville.

HAY IS SCARCE ON WISCONSIN FARMS

Crop Half Million Tons Below Average; Alfalfa Is Prosperous.

Madison.—Wisconsin farmers are faced with a shortage of approximately 500,000 tons of hay this year, and will have to purchase large quantities or dispose of thousands of animals, according to a statement Wednesday by Joseph A. Becker, crop reporter.

Production of all classes of hay this year totaled 4,118,000 tons, compared to 4,618,000 estimated on the part of last month, and a five year average of 4,617,000 tons, the report says. He points out that ordinarily farmers of the state sell several hundred thousand tons annually, but that it will be necessary for them to make purchases this year.

646,000 tons of Clover.

Clover production in separate fields will total 646,000 tons compared to 973,000 produced in 1920 and a five year average of 973,000 tons. The average yield per acre is estimated at 1.25 tons, compared to 1.75 tons last year and a five year average of 1.80 tons.

Mixed clover and timothy averaged 1.24 tons an acre in comparison to 1.36 in 1920 and a five year average of 1.54 tons. This is the lowest Wisconsin hay crop and production is estimated at 2,244,000 tons compared to 3,018,000 produced in 1920 and a five year average of 2,872,000 tons.

Big Alfalfa Crop.

Alfalfa was said to have escaped the frost damage of May and to have produced the largest crop of this hay since its introduction into the state. The 1921 crop is estimated at 302,000 tons, compared to 263,000 in 1920 and a five year average of 143,000 tons. The average yield is estimated at 2.55 tons an acre, compared to 2.70 in 1920 and a five year average of 2.69 tons.

Other tame hay made up of millet, peas and oats, sudan grass, and grama cut green, will yield 64,000 tons, the report says. This is in comparison to 58,000 produced in 1920, and a five year average of 57,000 tons. The condition of millet on September 1 was 87 per cent. compared to 80 per cent. on August 7, 80 per cent. last year and a 10 year average of 87 per cent.

The quality of tame hay was estimated at 90 per cent. of a high medium grade as compared to 96 per cent. in 1920 and a 10 year average of 94 per cent.

Pastures Improve.

The crop of wild or marsh hay in Wisconsin is estimated at 467,000 tons, compared to 459,000 produced in 1920 and a five year average of 479,000 tons. The average yield per acre is estimated at 1.74 tons, compared to 1.95 in 1920 and a five year average of 1.78 tons. Quality is said to be 90 per cent. compared to 93 per cent. last year and a six year average of 92 per cent.

Wisconsin pastures have improved in condition due to cooler weather and abundant rain, the report says. On September 1 the condition was 69 per cent. compared to 55 per cent. on August 1, 84 per cent. a year ago and a 10 year average of 84 per cent.

BORED DIPLOMATS NOT SO DIFFERENT FROM REST OF US

[By Associated Press.]

Paris.—The hours dragged monotonously for the Allied premiers during the last meeting of the supreme council at Paris, while the interpreters were translating the various speeches from French into English and Italian and, to while away the time, the prime ministers scribbled and drew various figures on pieces of paper, which they later threw into the waste basket. A journalist rescued them and this is what he found.

Lloyd George, probably inspired by the designs on Marshal Foch's uniform, was the ablest man, had drawn a perfect oak leaf.

Lord Curzon's effort proved to be a geographical map, but the country which it purported to bound remained a mystery; it might have been Upper Silesia and then again it might have been India, as the noble was preparing a speech on famine in India, which they later threw into the waste basket.

Branda's thoughts were evidently far away from matters of state while speaking from the official interpreter, was translating into English a speech the French premier had just delivered, for he drew a picture of a wedding couple just emerging from one of the Russian churches. The French premier is a bachelor.

"We Keep the Quality Up"

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

"We Keep the Quality Up"

Now is the Time to Buy Fall and Winter Merchandise

And it should be worth while to consider where your money will bring the best satisfactory returns—Compare, investigate.

It is a well known fact, one that has been proven time and time again that at The Big Store you can select from large stocks that are always new and correct and remember, we never misrepresent, or sacrifice quality to obtain low prices. So whatever you purchase at this store, you are sure of quality as you are sure of the extreme lowness of the price.

Women's and Misses' Fur Trimmed Suits for Fall Specially Priced at

$55 $60 and $65

The suits that we are offering at the above price are values that women have not seen in years, considering the quality, style and workmanship of the garments—Handsome in their rich fur trimmings. Navy blue and brown are the leading colors—to describe the effect of each would be impossible. Every size is here.

Charming New Dresses —At— $15, $16, $18, $22

A showing of Dresses that affords a wide selection of smart new models in Silk and Wool at prices that are far too low to be in keeping with their high quality. Serges, Tricotine, Satin and Taffeta; Beads, Embroidery and Braid are lavishly used in trimming. This is an opportunity to secure desirable Silk and Wool Dresses at a wonderful saving.

PLAN BIG PICNIC AT OSHKOSH

[Special to the Gazette]

Oshkosh.—Final preparations for staging one of the largest picnics of the year have been made by members of the Oshkosh Legion, for the picnic and grand parade will open the day at 9 a. m. Races and music by the Luther Valley band and other features have been arranged. The highway trailers and the Oshkosh White Sox will play a baseball game in the afternoon. Smiley's orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing at night.

DOUBLE WEDDING AT MONROE HOME

[Special to the Gazette]

Monroe.—A double wedding took place Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mackay, when Miss Janet Ann Nicol, Oshkosh, became the bride of Marquis Archambault, Monroe, and Mr. Archambault's sister, Bernice, was married to Max Carpenter, Oshkosh. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will live in Oshkosh; Mr. and Mrs. Archambault in Monroe.

HURRY TO ENLIST R. O. T. C. COMPANY

Beloit.—Discharge of 35 freshmen members of the Beloit R. O. T. C. on order of the war department. The minimum enlisted strength required by the war department is 100 members and to keep the corps it is necessary to enlist the proper number before Friday night.

STATE MEETS BONUS PAYMENTS PROMPTLY

Madison.—The state is meeting promptly all payments to former service men, under the soldier bonus statute allowing $10 for each month of service. Col. John C. Salzman said Wednesday. Provision of the legislature of sufficient funds to meet all obligations has been done away with any prospect of a shortage, he said. A decision of the state supreme court last winter, holding that soldiers who, although enlisting in states other than Wisconsin, were still considered as residents of this state, should receive the bonus, added approximately $300,000 to the obligations.

J. A. PEACOCK NAMED AS COMMISSIONER

Madison.—James A. Peacock, of Oconomowoc, was appointed Wednesday by Governor Elaine, to fill the balance of the term of C. W. Brewer as a member of the civil service commission. The term expires June 21, 1923.

BAND MAY OMIT NATIONAL ANTHEM; CHARGE DISRESPECT

Monroe.—Lack of respect shown by the audiences in the past for the national anthem may cause the Monroe High School band to omit the Star Spangled Banner as the last number on the program in its series of concerts. American Legion members are indignant and feel that it would be better not to play the anthem than to have disrespect shown for it.

The most marvelous machine in the world—and how it is neglected

AWAY back in the school books was a lesson on physiology.

Rather dull as a lesson. Yet it was the story of the most marvelous machine ever created—and how the machine gets its power and does its work.

That machine is the human body.

Some day the mechanical expert of this machine—the doctor—finds out for us where we have missed the lesson and neglected the machine.

GRAPE-NUTS food was made in accordance with the school book lesson on what the body needs and how its needs may best be supplied.

It is possible for a delicious food to be a scientific, "power" food. Grape-Nuts is such a food.

Perfecting Natural Gifts

Twenty hours of continuous baking has done certain wonderful things to the nourishing properties of whole wheat and malted barley flour, from which Grape-Nuts is made—and has produced a food in the form of crisp, golden-brown granules.

You chew Grape-Nuts thoroughly.

The rich, sweet flavor of Grape-Nuts is the reward of chewing. Nature meant the teeth to be used. Primitive people, who keep the natural teeth sound and perfect to old age, are eaters of food which requires chewing. Grape-Nut gives the teeth work to do.

Perhaps you remember a little of the physiology lesson, now—how the salivary juices respond when the food is thoroughly chewed—and the first important step in digestion is taken.

Life-Giving Properties

Wheat and malted barley are richest of all grains in the food elements required for human use. In Grape-Nuts all the essentials provided by nature in these grains are retained and perfected. The long, slow baking process which produces Grape-Nuts turns the grain's starches into natural sweetness and breaks up the nutritive solids into forms easily assimilated by the body.

The exceptional nourishment from Grape-Nuts is secured with no tax upon the digestion.

Penalties for Mistakes

When the doctor, as the mechanical expert of the bodily machine, comes to give advice in case of trouble, he finds that harm as well as good, often has resulted from food.

"Starchy" foods have been the subject of many warnings. Food which passes too slowly through the digestive tract causes disturbances to which much of the slowing down, wearing out, and failure of the bodily machine is traced.

A characteristic of Grape-Nuts is that it digests quickly and completely without fermentation in the intestines.

A World Service

There is, therefore, a reason why, throughout the world, Grape-Nuts has steadily grown in favor these many years, as a food for fitness, as well as charm to taste.

You can apply that reason to your own benefit.

Ready to eat from the package, always crisp, naturally sweet—served with cream or milk and a little sugar if desired—Grape-Nuts is an ideal dish for breakfast or lunch.

"There's a Reason" for Grape-Nuts

Undermuslin Section

South Room

Very Special Bargains for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

One Lot of Pink and White Night Gowns, of good quality Crepe, round neck. The garments are cut full and long. $2.00 val. $1.69 each at only.

One Lot of Muslin and Batiste Gowns in round and V neck style, ribbon run, regular $1.50 val. very special. $1.19

One Lot of Muslin and Crepe Bloomers in flesh and white, lace and embroidery trimmed; $1.00 values; at this sale 79c only.

Domestic Department Specials

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Extra Heavy Seamless Sheets, 72x99 inches, at only $1.35

81x90 Extra Quality Seamless Sheets, very special at $1.50

45x36-inch Pillow Cases, made of good tub-ing, at pair. 35c

42x45-inch Linen Finish Tubing, very special, yard. 39c

Fancy Plaid Dress Gingham, 27 inches wide, standard quality, special, yard 30c

Art Goods Section—South Room

Very Special for Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Stamped Bungalow Aprons, made up, only to be embroidered; colors: tan and white; very special at $1.00

Stamped Gowns, made up, only to be embroidered, all sizes, made of good quality long cloth; three patterns to select from; very special. 95c

Stamped Pillow Cases—Made of extra fine quality tubing, 45-inch; three patterns to select from; very special, pair. $1.19

Stamped Lunch Sets, consisting of 36-inch cloth and 4 napkins to match, on good quality unbleached muslin; very pretty patterns; special per set. $1.00

Notion Department Specials

Thursday, Friday Saturday

One Big Lot of Extra Quality White Pearl Buttons, worth 12 1/2c doz.; special for this sale, doz. 5c

One Lot of Extra Heavy White Dressing Combs, worth 85c, very special at. 50c

One Lot of Hair Brushes, extra quality, worth up to 85c; at only. 50c

EXTRA SPECIAL—Populaire Hair Nets, cap and fringe, all colors, worth 12 1/2c; special, 3 for 25c

BUNGALOW APRONS, VERY SPECIAL. 89c

Main Floor.

We will put on sale one lot of Bungalow Aprons, made of Gingham and Percale, in plaids, only—all good shades, very special for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. 89c

160 ENROLLED IN VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

those enrolled to date, there are 76 boys and 90 girls. A check of the census lists compiled will be made to see that all children who come

Fresh Spareribs,
12½c
Sauer Kraut.
Home Made Liver Saus-
sage.
Home Made Pig Pork

Sausage, bulk and link.
Home Made Summer
Sausage, Bologna, Wieners, Minced and New England Ham.
Head Cheese and Blood
Sausage.

J. F. SCHOOFF
14 S. River St.
Bell 15-16. R. C. 982-681

Middle-west
Utilities Co.
Collateral Gold Bonds
Due Jan. 1, 1925
Denominations $1000 &

The Company, through its subsidiaries, supplies electric light and power to 507 communities in 15 states. It has a record of constant growth. Its output is an everyday necessity to over a mil-

Priced to Yield 8 1-2%

THE ROCK COUNTY
NATIONAL BANK
SAVINGS & TRUST CO.
"Go to a Bank for Bonds."

RELICATION)
CONDITION OF THE

ern Wisconsin

sin, at the close of business on the to call by the Commissioner of Bank-

PRICES

.....	$574.421.23
.....	348.18
.....	20.821.72
.....	3,300.00

	$4,738.40
	8,293.95
	7,293.25
	46,934.47
	959.66
	14,732.98
Checks on
	2,739.37
	136.00
	<hr/>
	$766,221.36
LIABILITIES
	$100,000.00

..... 2,291.86
 588,640.36
 3,242.20
 39,292.90
 150.00
 1,196.63
 1,007.39
 $760,221.56

WITNESSES:
 I, above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above is true to the best of my knowledge
 J. W. DADY, President.
 Correct - Attest:

A. E. MATHESON,
J. P. CULLEN,
Directors.

100

by ery

CO.
in St.

"The Love Pendulum"

By MARION RUBINCAM

CHAPTER XXII.

WIN: "Aunt Harriet, could not but be mollified at this; the ordinary courtesy of the speech demanded that. But she got around it very cleverly, for she was really an extraordinarily clever woman."

"Your mother has already been charming enough to offer me the hospitality of her home," she said, her tones only a shade warmer than they had been. "I am sorry I cannot accept it, except until the train leaves tomorrow."

"If you must go, you won't see Connie—and she has been looking forward to a visit all during her convalescence," Win said smoothly and sweetly.

I looked at him in admiration. Here was a side of him that I had not seen yet. The city men were masters of the suave manner, but I never thought to find it in Win, born and bred in the little village of Wellsville.

Naturally Aunt Harriet was furious. Win had hit her weak spots—the knowledge that she had been a good mother and the knowledge that she was a good woman. But no one could have guessed that Win had scored a hit from her unrelenting exterior.

"But Aunt Harriet, I'm married now! And I don't want to go—I don't want to go—Win dear!" I appealed to him suddenly.

He held out his hand and took one of mine in it.

"She's of age, you know, Mrs. Bennett," he said firmly.

"You're married, and she's married, and she's got a husband," Aunt Harriet had possibly never accepted defeat before, and she did it now with poor grace.

"Yes, she's of age, and if she wants to stay, I have no control over her," she said, and then she turned to me. "You've been married two days. Wait until it's been two years, or ten. Then we'll see what happens. Meantime it seems I have to make the best of this."

"Will you shake hands then?" Win asked, holding out his right hand.

Aunt Harriet gazed at him for a moment, and then she said, "I intend to take advantage of your offer. I've had two days to sit here and wait for you, and during that time I've seen something of the place, and its inhabitants, and I've learned a few things about you from your mother."

"You've learned nothing from my daughter," then? Win answered, still smiling and keeping his temper.

"Naturally not," she said, and she left it an open question as to whether there was anything to learn, or whether it would not be learned from his mother. "I've found out that you have a position in an oil company here, that you've never been discharged, that you've been a good son and the people here like you. You look much better than I expected. You're attractive and you have a quick tongue and a good temper, that I've found for myself since I've seen you."

"I'm glad you like me a little," Win said. But this was premature—it gave her an opening.

"I don't, to be quite frank," she said. "I've married my niece, and I had my niece's future planned in an entirely different way. I can see how she would be attracted to your type. You'll probably make her a good husband, as the saying goes. But what will you offer her?"

"Your mother says you have money, in her trust. So you'll be able to live very well. She says in the best house in the village, and the income due you from your estate, you'll be rich. We needn't mention such things, they are a detail. But here and rich in the city are two different things."

"If you are rich by our standards, what can you do with it here? What can you offer my niece? What is the finest home in a town like this? What are its people, its opportunities?"

"Do you know what you've done? You've married a girl, heiress to a very large estate. You've agreed that she lives on my money, not hers," Win said. He was getting angry now, and I was afraid of a quarrel. I went behind him and slipped my hand into his.

"That sounds well. You may be able to do it in Wellsville. You could not in New York, or any place that counts. And the money is only the prettiest girl in New York—you have, I'm her aunt, and I know. With her beauty and my money, I could have made anything of her. She could have married anyone she chose."

"I chose Win," I cried.

"Yes, you chose Win," she echoed. "And for a time it will be very fine. But you'll starve, mentally and spiritually, in a place like this. You weren't born or bred to live in such a place. You may think so now. You're young and romantic and you've been ill and you don't mind the quiet. But I've had the pleasure of knowing some of your friends here—your Eliza and Margery and some whose names I've forgotten. I know you too well to think you'll be satisfied with them."

"She won't have to be," Win cried suddenly. "I'm going to bring her to the city."

Thursday—The Surprise

BEAUTY CHATS by Edna Kent Forbes

IMPROVING YOUR PROFILE

If you have an absolutely perfect profile you can dress your hair any way you want except that you should keep it simple lines in order to bring out all the beauty of your features. If you haven't a perfect profile, however, you may observe one or two rules. And when I say profile I mean not only the outline of the face and the shape of the nose and chin, but also the shape of the back of the head and the sloping line running down into the neck.

For you have a large protruding nose you will have to balance its size by a fairly loose knot at the back of the head.

If you have a small insignificant nose you will have to place the knot quite high on the back of the head.

If you have a large nose and a nicely rounded head you can give the hair down to the knot on the nape of the neck.

If the line of the back of the head is that you must build it out by putting a knot of hair back there, no matter what shape the nose may be.

If you have hollow cheeks bring the hair over the ears and part of the cheeks. This softens and makes the face seem rounder.

If your face is round and chubby draw the hair back to show the lower half of the ear, but do not get it too flat against the head, or it will make the face seem flatter.

If your face is long, bring the hair down over your forehead almost to the ears. If your face is short and round show all the forehead, if the forehead is broad.

If your features are irregular, "badly matched," as one young friend put it, the hair should be dressed very softly around the face and not over the ears, and the knot placed quite high on the back of the head.

Dora C.—Massage the scalp with hot crude oil the night before the regular shampoo. Send a stamped addressed envelope for a formula to grow lashes and eyebrows.

L. J.—Any beauty parlor does this work. The price is from $1 to $5 an hour.

Miss S. B.—The yeast cake is only a convenient form. You can take the yeast that is not compressed, if you prefer it.

P. E. B.—In the pilocarpine tonic, the amount of alcohol should be following: (50 per cent), has no connection with the formula and is an error of the printer's. The druggist should know that. Thank you for calling my attention to it.

Thankful—Your baby's skin trouble should be treated by the doctor. There should be a good test, in order to find out what causes the lesions.

Learn to do your hair attractively.

half of the ear, but do not get it too flat against the head, or it will make the face seem flatter.

If your face is long, bring the hair down over your forehead almost to the ears. If your face is short and round show all the forehead, if the forehead is broad.

If your features are irregular, "badly matched," as one young friend put it, the hair should be dressed very softly around the face and not over the ears, and the knot placed quite high on the back of the head.

Dora C.—Massage the scalp with hot crude oil the night before the regular shampoo. Send a stamped addressed envelope for a formula to grow lashes and eyebrows.

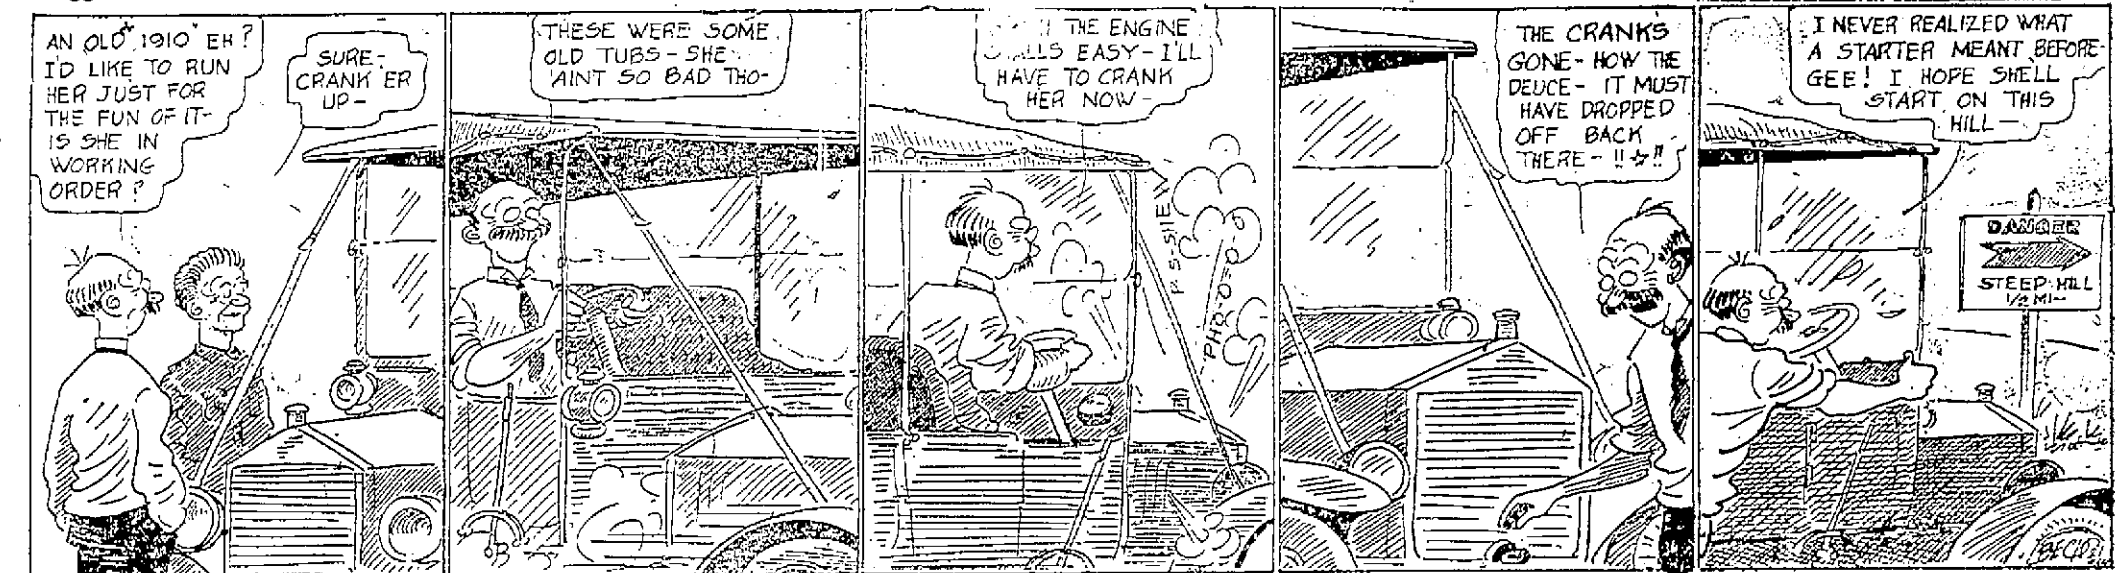

L. J.—Any beauty parlor does this work. The price is from $1 to $5 an hour.

Miss S. B.—The yeast cake is only a convenient form. You can take the yeast that is not compressed, if you prefer it.

P. E. B.—In the pilocarpine tonic, the amount of alcohol should be following: (50 per cent), has no connection with the formula and is an error of the printer's. The druggist should know that. Thank you for calling my attention to it.

Thankful—Your baby's skin trouble should be treated by the doctor. There should be a good test, in order to find out what causes the lesions.

Gas Buggies—Did it ever happen to you, old timer?

Today's Short Story

By GEORGE T. BYE

Illustrations by WILLIAM STEVENS

Mandy

"Amanda Gertrude Jackson" was on her calling cards, and these two were among the holiday accessories in wardrobe trunk. Probably not another colored working girl in America was luckier than Amanda. When Professor Tonks decided to spend the summer in Europe, Amanda was informed that she might stay at the house or close to it—the summer was hers at full pay.

She was bound for Washington. She hadn't been there since her mother died. She left Boston as a maid, but she knew, with some little foreboding, that she would be Mandy in Washington.

"Long John" met her at the station. She submitted to a kiss—"aub-horse in the command. Schmaltz slipped out of the corralled wagons and rode away. He was at once discovered by the Indians, and while urging his horse to top speed the scout rode into a prairie dog town.

The horse stumbled, nearly throwing its rider over its head. Schmaltz covered and fired on the Indians, but lost his hat and carbine in the tumble, and the Indians were gaining on him. They would have caught him, too, if he had not run into a buffalo herd, which immediately stampeded.

Heading low over his horse's neck, the scout rode beside a big buffalo bull and succeeded in escaping the pursuing redskins. By this time he had lost all sense of direction. Finally reaching a stream which he recognized as the Canadian river, he knew he was headed in the right direction.

Recent rains had swollen the river to a torrent and an attempt to ford it in the darkness meant the chance of death from quicksand or floating driftwood. Deciding to wait until daylight, the scout began searching for a ford. Suddenly he heard dogs barking and knew he was near an Indian village. He must cross the river, plunging in boldly, he managed to reach the other bank in safety.

Daybreak found him in a broken country covered with thickets, and in one of these he hid all day, hungry and thirsty. At nightfall the scout, with the North star as his guide, reached a cabin. After riding all night, he reached a hay camp at Wolf Creek, 20 miles from Camp Supply.

Stopping here long enough to eat and get a fresh supply, Schmaltz sped on to Camp Supply, which he reached soon after noon. While the relief expedition was being organized, the scout slept for two hours—and when the soldiers rode away to the rescue of their companions, Scout Schmaltz led the way and guided them safely in the wagon train within the next 20 hours.

"Long John" met her at the station. "Oh, Mandy, excuse me," he stammered. "I've been shuffling. But I could never keep up with you. You must have been studying hard all these years."

"I had the great advantage of working in the professor's house, of course, and he and Mrs. Tonks have been angels to me," John said. "They're regular Abe Lincoln white folks, just as I wrote you. . . . What? You've earned a cab for me, John? Oh, you are a dear."

Long John's happiness at seeing Mandy again had a great deal of the spiritual in it. He had loved her from the time they were school children. It had been her tidiness that captivated him, and now it was something else—the co-ordination of her heart and intelligence that made her the meek yet proud, the girlish and yet indomitable figure.

Along in September it was time for her to start back to Boston to get the Tonks home ready for its master and mistress. There had been many Saturday and Sunday plagues with Long John, and many evening walks, but the subject that was nearest his life had not come up once—not until those last torturing few minutes at the Pennsylvania station.

"I want to tell you something," he suddenly interjected, looking away from his eyes showing how hard he was driving himself. "Mandy, I know I am unworthy of you. Just near me talk. That's the way when I get excited. I want to get educated, and I'm steady, but Mandy, it's plain you're way too far along from the old nigger days for me. What's going to become of you, Mandy? I don't know any man that's deserving of you."

"Nonsense, John," reproved Mandy. "I'll marry you or be a teacher."

"Don't the professor want you to stay working at his house?" Mandy asked, and looked down.

"No," John said. "He thinks our country needs refined, humble black couples more than anything else. He thinks that when you have saved up $500 we ought to marry."

"What? I got the money—but how did he hear about me?"

Long John hugged her before she could answer.

Admiral Sims sat at a dinner party in New York.

"South is always an extremist. Take, for instance, the battleship question. We middle-aged sailors are just now asking ourselves exactly how much the submarine has impaired the value of the battleship, but youth has got the question settled for good and all."

"What is the value of the battleship today?" I said to a naval cadet at a luncheon.

"Oh, Mandy, excuse me," he stammered. "I've been shuffling. But I could never keep up with you. You must have been studying hard all these years."

"I had the great advantage of working in the professor's house, of course, and he and Mrs. Tonks have been angels to me," John said. "They're regular Abe Lincoln white folks, just as I wrote you. . . . What? You've earned a cab for me, John? Oh, you are a dear."

Long John's happiness at seeing Mandy again had a great deal of the spiritual in it. He had loved her from the time they were school children. It had been her tidiness that captivated him, and now it was something else—the co-ordination of her heart and intelligence that made her the meek yet proud, the girlish and yet indomitable figure.

Along in September it was time for her to start back to Boston to get the Tonks home ready for its master and mistress. There had been many Saturday and Sunday plagues with Long John, and many evening walks, but the subject that was nearest his life had not come up once—not until those last torturing few minutes at the Pennsylvania station.

"I want to tell you something," he suddenly interjected, looking away from his eyes showing how hard he was driving himself. "Mandy, I know I am unworthy of you. Just near me talk. That's the way when I get excited. I want to get educated, and I'm steady, but Mandy, it's plain you're way too far along from the old nigger days for me. What's going to become of you, Mandy? I don't know any man that's deserving of you."

"Nonsense, John," reproved Mandy. "I'll marry you or be a teacher."

"Don't the professor want you to stay working at his house?" Mandy asked, and looked down.

"No," John said. "He thinks our country needs refined, humble black couples more than anything else. He thinks that when you have saved up $500 we ought to marry."

"What? I got the money—but how did he hear about me?"

Long John hugged her before she could answer.

Admiral Sims sat at a dinner party in New York.

Heart and Home Problems

By ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: For years I have described the type of fellow of whom I would like to think seriously. A couple of months ago I met by happenstance just that kind of fellow. Can you tell me how I can make him love me?

"He has blue eyes, a fair complexion, easy quiet ways and a very sweet disposition."

Please don't tell me to wait and he will come, for I have been waiting but with unprofitable results. And please don't tell me that if he loves me he will come. What I want to know is how I can make him love me.

"To tell me to forget is useless for I have tried and simply cannot. I think of him while working and while resting. I have always admired that sort of young man and know that it is real love and not mere infatuation."

After having met him I cannot more than like other fellows. All other fellows are uninteresting to me now. It seems that I will simply go crazy thinking about him. I work in an office but am going back to school in the fall for a few months, after which I will have a permanent position.

I am so situated that I cannot entertain the young man in my home and am not blessed with a beautiful face or wealth. I haven't even a good disposition, although I try very hard to be sweet and have never spoken freely to this young man. I am worried and heart sick. I want to win his affections and yet I want to do what is right.

MISS COMFORT.

You will not believe what I tell you now, but sometime you will look back and see that I was right. For a long time the man you could love lived only in your thoughts, and then you met some one you thought was like your mind's picture. Little girl, you are loving a creature of your imagination.

daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

"Well, mum," returned the domestic, "it's not so bad that's over particular. Ol' m' willing to call th' young laddy in my name ye'd suggest, mum."

"Now," said the warder to the prisoner, who had just arrived at the prison, "we'll see you to work. What can you do best?"

"Well, if you give me a week's practice on your signature I'll sign your official papers for you," said the prisoner.

Mrs. Simmons was rather taken aback by learning that her new domestic's name was the same as her own daughter's.

"Your name, Katherine, and my daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

"Well, mum," returned the domestic, "it's not so bad that's over particular. Ol' m' willing to call th' young laddy in my name ye'd suggest, mum."

"Now," said the warder to the prisoner, who had just arrived at the prison, "we'll see you to work. What can you do best?"

"Well, if you give me a week's practice on your signature I'll sign your official papers for you," said the prisoner.

Mrs. Simmons was rather taken aback by learning that her new domestic's name was the same as her own daughter's.

"Your name, Katherine, and my daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

"Well, mum," returned the domestic, "it's not so bad that's over particular. Ol' m' willing to call th' young laddy in my name ye'd suggest, mum."

"Now," said the warder to the prisoner, who had just arrived at the prison, "we'll see you to work. What can you do best?"

"Well, if you give me a week's practice on your signature I'll sign your official papers for you," said the prisoner.

Mrs. Simmons was rather taken aback by learning that her new domestic's name was the same as her own daughter's.

"Your name, Katherine, and my daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

Heart and Home Problems

By ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: For years I have described the type of fellow of whom I would like to think seriously. A couple of months ago I met by happenstance just that kind of fellow. Can you tell me how I can make him love me?

"He has blue eyes, a fair complexion, easy quiet ways and a very sweet disposition."

Please don't tell me to wait and he will come, for I have been waiting but with unprofitable results. And please don't tell me that if he loves me he will come. What I want to know is how I can make him love me.

"To tell me to forget is useless for I have tried and simply cannot. I think of him while working and while resting. I have always admired that sort of young man and know that it is real love and not mere infatuation."

After having met him I cannot more than like other fellows. All other fellows are uninteresting to me now. It seems that I will simply go crazy thinking about him. I work in an office but am going back to school in the fall for a few months, after which I will have a permanent position.

I am so situated that I cannot entertain the young man in my home and am not blessed with a beautiful face or wealth. I haven't even a good disposition, although I try very hard to be sweet and have never spoken freely to this young man. I am worried and heart sick. I want to win his affections and yet I want to do what is right.

MISS COMFORT.

You will not believe what I tell you now, but sometime you will look back and see that I was right. For a long time the man you could love lived only in your thoughts, and then you met some one you thought was like your mind's picture. Little girl, you are loving a creature of your imagination.

daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

"Well, mum," returned the domestic, "it's not so bad that's over particular. Ol' m' willing to call th' young laddy in my name ye'd suggest, mum."

"Now," said the warder to the prisoner, who had just arrived at the prison, "we'll see you to work. What can you do best?"

"Well, if you give me a week's practice on your signature I'll sign your official papers for you," said the prisoner.

Mrs. Simmons was rather taken aback by learning that her new domestic's name was the same as her own daughter's.

"Your name, Katherine, and my daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

"Well, mum," returned the domestic, "it's not so bad that's over particular. Ol' m' willing to call th' young laddy in my name ye'd suggest, mum."

"Now," said the warder to the prisoner, who had just arrived at the prison, "we'll see you to work. What can you do best?"

"Well, if you give me a week's practice on your signature I'll sign your official papers for you," said the prisoner.

Mrs. Simmons was rather taken aback by learning that her new domestic's name was the same as her own daughter's.

"Your name, Katherine, and my daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

"Well, mum," returned the domestic, "it's not so bad that's over particular. Ol' m' willing to call th' young laddy in my name ye'd suggest, mum."

"Now," said the warder to the prisoner, who had just arrived at the prison, "we'll see you to work. What can you do best?"

"Well, if you give me a week's practice on your signature I'll sign your official papers for you," said the prisoner.

Mrs. Simmons was rather taken aback by learning that her new domestic's name was the same as her own daughter's.

"Your name, Katherine, and my daughter's being the same makes matters somewhat confusing," said Mrs. Simmons. "Suppose we change it."

"Oh, don't mind, mum," replied the girl.

"That's very nice," said the mistress.

"How do you like, say, the name of Bryant?"

AVALON

(By Gazette Correspondent)

Avalon—The Ladies, auxiliary of the Emerald Grove church will meet with Mrs. Charles Doubleday Thursday. There will be a picnic supper—Margaret Irish left Thursday for Wausau, where she will teach in the public schools the coming year.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson returned to Chicago Saturday after spending a week at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Volz.—Mrs. E. P. Irish will entertain the sewing club next Wednesday, Sept. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Hemming gave a miscellaneous show Wednesday night for their niece, Helen Bohlen, who will be a September bride.—E. R. Boynton returned home Saturday from the fair, where he exhibited his Polled Durham cattle.—Cora Stoney left Sunday for the town of Avon, where she is teaching.—Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith were Sunday guests at the J. T. Boynton home.—A number from here attended the Walworth county fair last week.—The Girls' club met with Elizabeth and Mary Doubleday Saturday night. The next meeting will be held at the church, where a picnic supper will be served.

First of all, keep your thoughts to yourself. Do not tell any one, not even your dearest friend, of your love or admiration for the young man. If he hears in any way that you care for him, he will be disgusted and your case is hopeless.

Instead of spending time thinking about your love, make yourself pretty clothes, brush your hair and comb it with the utmost care, bathe every night so that your skin will look fresh and attractive, manure your nails, keep your shoes polished and your clothes immaculate. This alone will not be attractive. It will be your personality as well as

When Judge Landis Made Basis for Settling Building Disputes

Federal Judge K. M. Landis, on bench, reading his decision to courtroom crowded with employers and labor officials.

The recent award of Federal Judge K. M. Landis of Chicago in the Chicago building trades dispute is expected to be accepted as a basis for the settlement of similar disputes in many other labor centers in the country. Landis' decision followed discussions before the judge by builders, contractors and labor officials. Some of the main points in his award were the reduction of wages from 10 to 35 per cent, the use of union and non-union materials by union men, the prohibition of strikes and lockouts, and prevention of discrimination against any employers not included in any agreements.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Limber, Spring Valley, Mr. and Mrs. August Nightingale and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hurnick and son, Milton, were in Madison Sunday. Mrs. Edith Schumacher, Porter, visited at the home of her parents here Sunday. Walter Thompson, Calumet, is painting a sign for Mrs. M. P. Miller. Miss Dorothy Snyder has entered the junior year in the Janesville high school. Miss Marian Andrew is attending school at Footville. Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Shaw and daughter, Mrs. Edith Lockhart, Milwaukee, and Mrs. Marie Bassett, Deloit, were callers at the Puller home Thursday. Miss Mary Lynch, Janesville, sister of Mrs. C. H. Whitmore, visited here Sunday and Monday. Misses Art and Bernadine Holden spent last week in Evansville. Arthur Schroeder and Harvey Ten Eyck attended the Evansville fair Thursday.

MAGNOLIA

Magnolia—Melpers Union meets Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Paul Grange. Raymond May has resumed his school duties in the Broadhead high school, after assisting Glenn Clark for some time. Marion Andrew is attending school in Footville this year. The Rev. Mr. Eld will spend a part of this week in Arcata. Choir practice will be held at P. M. Harper home Friday night, at which time songs will be practiced to get a choir in readiness for an evangelistic campaign to be carried on in the A. C. church by Rev. Mr. Wilson of Arcata, beginning Oct. 16. Mrs. T. F. Harper and son visited Mrs. John Lloyd and infant daughter at Mercy hospital Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harrison and daughter spent Sunday at the P. M. Harper home.

LEYDEN

Leyden—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byrne Saturday. W. Pratt has purchased a new tractor. T. Harkness and family visited in Oregon and Deloit Sunday. W. Morgan has purchased the Geordie property. Mrs. W. Churchill and family motored to Elkhorn Thursday to attend the fair. E. J. Riley and family spent Sunday at the Dixon farm, near Deloit. Durham & Kerton filed a suit for T. Riley Friday. Lorent Adeo is not yet able to be out, suffering from a sore knee caused by falling on a sharp nail. Leyden's population is increasing, a new family having just moved into the old creamery building.

SCHOOL PADS 5c.

For sale at The Gazette Office. Advertisement.

Woodmen of The World Drill Team will organize at the regular meeting Friday Evening, Sept. 16th. Refreshments after the drill. All members must be present.

Brodhead

(By Gazette Correspondent.) Brodhead—A family reunion was held at the J. W. Young home Sunday when all the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were present at the celebration. The celebration was in honor of the 50th birthday anniversary of Mr. Young.

Enrollment in the Broadhead public school, which opened Monday for the year, is the largest in the history of the school. The total pupils in both high school and grades is 352. Two hundred and twenty-one are in the grade school and 131 in the high school. More seats and desks will have to be installed to accommodate the overflow.

Kurt Guelson arrived home Sunday from Rochester, Minn., where he went for an operation at Mayo Bros' hospital several weeks ago. Misses Hazel and Frances Douglas went to Whitewater Monday to enroll in Normal school. Mrs. J. H. Walker returned to her home in Madison Monday after a few days' visit with Miss Halfhead. She will teach the coming year at the state normal school at Ellendale, N. D. P. R. Burns has secured the contract to erect the new school house in Dist. 16, town of Arcata. Mrs. H. D. George, Chicago, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Macfar.

gives you a receipt for beautiful teeth
SMITH'S PHARMACY
The Rexall Store.
Kodaks & Kodak Supplies
Mail Orders Filled Promptly.

Footville

(By Gazette Correspondent.)

Footville—Willbur Rote was elected president of the Athletic association last Friday night. It is planned to have a grand opening of the association program for the year soon. Mr. and Mrs. Oren Cook and daughter, Dorothy, went to Oxfordville Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Oren Gage. Mrs. Jennie Turnbull, Janesville, returned home Monday after a visit with her cousin, Mrs. H. H. Macdonald. A meeting of the Women's missionary society will be held with Mrs. Quinby Wednesday. The Rock county Sunday school association will have charge of the services at the Christian church Sunday. Singers from Deloit will be here. Miss March Lynch, who has been visiting friends in Evansville, arrived here Saturday and is visiting at the G. M. Goodrich home. The local Berkins will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Schumacher Thursday night. Miss Violet Bruce, teacher in the district school, spent the week-end with Miss Bessie Gentry. Miss Edna Gentry returned from Keshiawille Saturday night, where she spent several weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Wright. Mrs. R. R. Lowry is teaching the young men's class at the Christian church in the absence of Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Forrest Worthington, Milwaukee, who came here to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chipman, left Saturday, accompanied by her parents, for an indefinite stay at the home of Mrs. Martha Korte, wife of Dr. J. W. Johnson and family, Madison, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Collins.

JUDA

(By Gazette Correspondent.)

Juda—The R. N. A. met in regular session Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Parker Newman left Tuesday for Colorado on a sight-seeing tour. The Rev. and Mrs. S. O. Christian are expected home from Clinton, Ia., the latter part of the week. Services will be held at the Baptist church Sunday. The Methodist Ladies Aid society will hold a social at the H. B. Gifford home Wednesday.

CUTTS' CORNERS

(By Gazette Correspondent.)

Cutts' Corners—Mrs. P. Cutts and Mrs. C. Pone, Janesville, attended the Evansville fair one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. Marquette and Will

Russell Cowan Saturday. Mr. and

Mrs. Leon Spencer have received word of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Spencer. Mr. Spencer, who is a brother of Leon Spencer and Mrs. Floyd Milbrandt, Footville, is a teacher at the University of Illinois, Urbana. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bates and Wilbur Rote attended the Walworth county fair at Elkhorn last Thursday.

LIMA

(By Gazette Correspondent.)

Lima—L. L. Lund and family, Whitewater, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. Freeman. Mrs. G. M. Dean and nephew, Walter Anglin, Rockford, called at the Ora Gould home Monday. Mrs. Erickson and children are visiting her parents, north of Whitewater. Irvin McLean and O. B. Boite, Milwaukee, made Ora Gould a short visit Monday afternoon. They came here to attend the funeral of Mr. McLean's father, John McLean, who died at the age of 81 years. Mrs. George Warren, Janesville, spent Friday and Saturday with friends here. Mrs. Loomer and daughter, Cora, Delavan, are visiting Mrs. O. A. Toe. Donald McComb spent the week-end with a number of Madison boys at Elkhorn lake. J. W. Johnson and family, Madison, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Collins.

Marquard, Milton, drove to Rockford Thursday. W. Crickshank filed his suit Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vasson and little son and Mr. and Mrs. Cuts drove to Deloit to spend the week-end with relatives. James Thant, state potato inspector, called at C. Marquette's Friday. He is touring the state. Miss Margaret Baritz spent the week-end at her home in Milton Junction. Robert Archerbault went to Deloit Wednesday.

UTTER'S CORNERS

(By Gazette Correspondent.)

Utter's Corners—Miss Violet Mahoney, Delavan, returned home Saturday after spending a week with Miss Nettie Farnsworth. A number from here attended the Elkhorn fair. George Doe and family visited at the George Rogers home, Janesville, Sunday. Ester and Lillian Vetter have returned from a vacation spent in Chicago. The L. A. S. will be entertained by Mrs. E. Hobbs Thursday afternoon.

SCHOOL PADS 5c.

For sale at The Gazette Office. Advertisement.

EAST KOSHKONONG

(By Gazette Correspondent.)

East Koshkonong—Chauncey Hatch and family, Lockport, Ill., have returned home after spending a week at the C. R. Johnson home. Mrs. William Groen and daughter, Florence, called at the Robert Hudson home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rollison left for Florida Monday, where they will reside. August Bearman and family spent Friday in Port Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. James Waters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Groen. Mrs. Rudolph Hummel spent Sunday at the August Bearman home.

WANTED—Man with Ford car to solicit advertisements for The Janesville Gazette in towns and on rural routes in Rock County. Call by phone or write Circulation Mgr., Gazette.

Advertisement.

JANESVILLIANS BY THE HUNDREDS NOW TAKING FAMOUS TONIC TRUTONA

Says Trutona Stopped Her Vomiting Spells And Severe Head Pains

MRS. M. YOUNG

"I'm so thankful for the relief this medicine Trutona's given me that I'm really anxious to advise every sufferer to give it a trial." Mrs. Mollie Young, 927 South First avenue, Rockford, Ill., declared when the Trutona Expert called on her.

"My stomach had been in terrible condition for some time," she continued. "Gas, formations pressed against my heart at times until I thought I'd die any minute. It wasn't unusual for me to become deathly sick at my stomach and I would often suffer severe strain trying to throw up my meals. It was almost impossible for me to sleep well at night and I had such severe pains in my head."

"Regardless of the seriousness of my troubles, Trutona has done the work in my case. I honestly haven't been bothered with sour stomach or the vomiting spells, since I began using Trutona. My bowels have been regulated, I sleep so much better at night and the former pains in my head and dizzy spells have ceased to occur. I'll tell you, I'm certainly grateful for the relief Trutona's given me."

"I've Gained 100 Per Cent in Strength"

This Local Woman Describes One Of Many Good Things Trutona's Done For Her.

"I've gained about one hundred per cent in strength and I'm honestly beginning to feel like a new woman, since taking this medicine Trutona," Mrs. J. Johnson, 234 North Franklin street, enthusiastically declared recently.

"Trutona's certainly nothing short of a fine medicine," she continued. "For about three months I had been so weak I could scarcely get around. Nothing I ate tasted good and I suffered considerably from a numb feeling in my arms and limbs. I could scarcely use these members at times. Finally I decided to try Trutona and I'm sure ready now to recommend this medicine to anyone who suffers as I did. Why, I'm beginning to feel like new now. My limbs and arms don't bother me nearly as much as they did and I can get around with greater ease nowadays. I'll tell you, my appetite is almost too good for my pocketbook now."

Such statements as the above—fairly teeming with gratitude—are causing scores of local people to begin using Trutona, the famous tonic. Enthusiastic stories are told every day at the People's Drug Store, regarding how some well-known Janesville man or woman gained practically un hoped-for benefits through us of Trutona. If YOU suffer from nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite, side, back or chest pains, anaemia, blood disorders, gastritis or the like, YOU owe it to YOURSELF to try Trutona. Buy it TODAY!

BEST INVESTMENT

"This great medicine Trutona is undoubtedly the best preparation money can buy today," declares Mr. N. Landsverk, 606 S. Jackson street, Janesville. "It just seemed that nothing would reach my case until I began using Trutona and Trutona has improved my condition remarkably. I haven't suffered a single one of my former severe headaches, since taking Trutona and I can eat a big hearty meal now without suffering afterwards. It certainly is a wonderful relief to have one's bowels acting regularly as mine do now."

BLOOD DISORDERS

Blood disorders are particularly common at this season. Let Trutona get down to the very root of your blood troubles and REMOVE the CAUSE of those painful boils, ulcers, skin eruptions, eczema and the like. Trutona will do it. Thousands have testified to the merits of this preparation as a blood purifier.

TRUTONA, the famous root, bark and herb tonic and blood purifier, which is winning the unstinted praise of hundreds in this city and vicinity, is being specially introduced and explained at the PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE, where it is highly recommended as an unequalled stomach, liver, kidney and bowel remedy.

BUY TRUTONA AT THE PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE

Have a Strong Back Bone

Be a Man in the Truest Sense of the Word

From a moral standpoint a man who, metaphorically, has a weak back bone is of little account. From a physical standpoint a man with a weak back bone is likewise of little account for he will not enjoy health for any length of time. See that your backbone is normal. Get your Chiropractor to give you a spinal analysis, and if there is any defect have it adjusted at once. Chiropractic is the drugless health science that will make a real man of you. Investigate.

The added certainty of analysis through the medium of the Spiniograph X-Ray, which makes a perfectly clear photographic reproduction of your back bone and any vertebrae which may be out of line and causing disease, make for a positive diagnosis and consequent intelligent treatment of your particular condition.

Use the coupon in this ad today.

FREE BOOKLET.

Please send me your free booklet on Chiropractic. I am interested in this new science.

Name

Address

SPINOGRAPHIC X-RAY LABORATORY

E. H. DAMROW, D. C.

PALMER SCHOOL CHIROPRACTOR.

209-210 Jackman Bldg.

LADY ASSISTANT.

Established in Janesville, 1914.

T. P. BURNS & CO. JANESVILLE WIS. Rug Specials

From Our Busy 2nd Floor Rug Section

18x36 Velvet Rugs, pretty Oriental and Floral Designs. These are the first 18x36 Rugs shown in Janesville for several years.

Special for a Few Days, $1.79

27x54 Wool Chemille Rugs, Plain and Mottled centers, Oriental and Scenic borders. $6.00 value.

Special $2.69

U. S. IS WATCHING SHANTUNG PARLEY

May Exert Good Offices to Bring About Far East Settlement.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright 1921, by Janesville Gazette. Washington.—The United States government is taking a deep interest in the negotiations between China and Japan over the Shantung question. There is even a chance that the good offices of this government, exerted since its influence will be exerted to bring about a settlement, though it is not yet clear whether the initiative taken by the Japanese was for the purpose of beginning a parley that would merge into a larger conference at Washington in November.

Whether it was an effort to put the Chinese in the position of knowing the world of refusing a settlement. Japan has professed her anxiety on many occasions to reach a settlement with China, but the latter, having refused to sign the Versailles treaty, declined to enter into negotiations which have as their basis a confirmation of the action of the Paris peace conference in awarding Japan certain rights in Shantung. The United States did not favor the Shantung settlement in the Versailles conference and the Harding administration having failed to ratify the Versailles pact in order to increase its influence for a settlement between China and Japan on a disinterested and unprejudiced basis.

Appeals to Washington.

The largest aspect of the move on the part of Japan, informally proposing at this time a settlement with China have appealed to the Washington authorities. It is the most significant step that has been taken since President Harding issued his invitation for a discussion of Far Eastern questions in connection with disarmament. The Chinese are quite ready to accept the invitation, but they are not prepared to accept a conference before the Washington conference begins. This looks impossible because Far Eastern diplomacy is of the slow and procrastinating kind. On the other hand, the Japanese might try to persuade the Washington conference to keep hands off while the matters between Japan and China were settled directly. China on the other hand is eager for the support of the outside world and wants all the powers to be present when an agreement is reached so that Great Britain, France, Italy and the United States be morally responsible for the fulfillment by Japan of the promises she makes.

Seek Settlement.

The Japanese embassy in America's invitation to a conference with the specific proviso that "accomplished facts" would not be discussed. This was generally taken to mean that Japan would not permit the Shantung issue to come before the other powers. Now, however, her negotiations with China have reopened the question and there is good reason to believe that Japan realized the futility of trying to exclude the Shantung controversy from the Washington conference when she herself had made no progress toward a direct settlement with China.

The current of Japanese diplomacy are always difficult to analyze because of the physical distance of the Japanese government from European and American capitals, but the news in Japan has been sending a message to China so that commercial enterprises which the Japanese have in mind may be developed without delay. The consortium agreement reached between Japan and the United States and other powers has little effectiveness if political relations between China and Japan remain strained.

Commercial Problem.

The immense opportunities for the development of the resources of China are recognized on every side and the Japanese need the co-operation of other countries in most of their plans. The effort to conciliate China and heal the open sores which the Shantung issue has back of it is not only political but commercial in nature. Japan has been told that her action in respect of the 21 demands as well as her failure to restore Shantung to China have adversely affected the public opinion of the United States. Her officials have insisted that the time has come for Japan to remove the sources of misunderstanding concerning Japanese motives and that a most striking example of Japanese recalcitrance would be afforded by her course toward China in the Shantung controversy. The United States is eager to help along such a settlement and it is not unlikely that China will be urged to give serious consideration to the Japanese proposals in the hope that an adjustment may be reached before the Washington conference and thus remove one of the obstacles to progress at that meeting.

DELAVAN MAN, EX-COP, TAKEN BACK TO IOWA TO SERVE SENTENCE

Delavan.—Robert Miller, Delavan, former member of the Deloit police force, who was arrested at the Elkhart county fair, where he was operating a concession, was taken back to Charles City, Ia., where he will serve a five year sentence on a charge of robbing a hotel in Charles City more than five years ago. Miller admitted his guilt when detectives came for him. After being convicted and sentenced, he escaped from the sheriff. Miller was formerly a chauffeur for William Moxley, Delavan.

BUENOS AIRES IS GIVEN BATH EVERY MORNING

Buenos Aires.—Sunrise every morning finds Buenos Aires, the downtown section in particular, fresh-washed, clean as a Dutch housewife's doorstep and smelling like a hospital. This is a result of the thorough washing given all the streets every night and the liberal doses of disinfectant that are spread about to check communicable diseases.

About midnight every night gangs of white-clad men, armed with brooms and hoses, appear and undertake to rout out any chance germs that may be lurking in gutters and dark corners.

But this is only a part of the city's constant war on disease. It also carries on educational campaigns, issuing posters principally in order to warn the people of the means by which disease is spread.

IRISH RIGHTS BODY FORMED IN DELAVAN

Delavan.—An association for the recognition of Irish rights in the United States was organized Tuesday night at a meeting in the Knights of Columbus hall. The Rev. Mr. Shanahan was elected president; John Henney, vice-president; Walter Von Guechten, secretary; and Miss Freddie Fleming, treasurer.

SCHOOL PADS 5c.

For sale at The Gazette Office.

Advertisement.

HUNDREDS ATTEND TRIPLE WEDDING

Clinton.—Three Clinton couples, who plan to live on adjoining farms near this city, were married Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. N. L. Geubert here. Miss Elsie Reum was married to Robert Doherty, Miss Freddie Krebs to Walter A. Grams, and Miss Helen Dobrats to Arvin Reum. Hundreds of guests were invited to the wedding supper which followed the ceremony.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court for Rock County, Wisconsin, to be held at the Court House in Janesville, Wisconsin, on February 7, 1922, at nine o'clock A. M., all claims against Neil E. Thompson, late of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, will be examined and adjusted.

All claims must be filed in said Court on or before January 15th, 1922, or be barred.

Dated September 13th, 1921.

By the Court: CHARLES L. RIFIELD, County Judge.

E. H. Peterson, Atty. for Administrator.

SUMMONS

STATE OF WISCONSIN. Circuit Court for Rock County. Plaintiff, Joseph Kleinbauer.

Clara Guernsey Van de Water, Frederick Guernsey Van de Water and Marion Van de Water, heirs-at-law of Benjamin Guernsey, deceased.

Defendants.

Whereas, the said Clara Guernsey Van de Water, Frederick Guernsey Van de Water and Marion Van de Water, heirs-at-law of Benjamin Guernsey, deceased, are the unknown owners of all interests in, claims to, and liens upon the following described premises: Part of fractional lot seven (7) in Section Thirty-six (36) Town Three (3) Range Twelve (12), Beginning at a point in the center of Main Street, twelve rods southwesterly from the southeast corner of lot thirty-four (34) of Dickson and Bailey's Addition to Janesville, thence southwesterly along the center of said street sixty-four (64) feet, thence southwesterly and parallel to the south line of said lot thirty-four (34) to Rock River to a point from which a line drawn parallel with the south line of said lot thirty-four (34) will meet the point of beginning; thence along said line to the point of beginning; and the unknown heirs-at-law, wives, husbands, assigns, legatees, devisees of all the above named defendants and parties and of Benjamin Guernsey, and all persons whom it may concern.

That the State of Wisconsin to the Defendants:

You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty (20) days after service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the above entitled action in the court aforesaid, and in case of your failure so to do judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint.

This action affects the title to and is brought to establish the title of plaintiff to the following described real estate: Part of fractional lot seven (7) in section thirty-six (36) Town Three (3) Range Twelve (12), Beginning at a point in the center of Main Street, twelve rods southwesterly from the southeast corner of lot thirty-four (34) of Dickson and Bailey's Addition to Janesville, thence southwesterly along the center of said street sixty-four (64) feet, thence southwesterly and parallel to the south line of said lot thirty-four (34) to Rock River to a point from which a line drawn parallel with the south line of said lot thirty-four (34) will meet the point of beginning; thence along said line to the point of beginning.

The verified complaint in this action is on file in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Rock County, Wisconsin.

Roger G. & Robert J. Cunningham, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

T. O. Address: Janesville, Wisconsin.

To each and all of the defendants, however designated in the caption hereof, notice is hereby given that a true and correct copy of the complaint in this action, together with a copy of the summons, will be made to said court for the appointment of a guardian ad litem for all infants, insane and incompetent persons, both known and unknown whom said action concerns and for whom a guardian ad litem has not been previously appointed.

Roger G. & Robert J. Cunningham, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF HEARING

STATE OF WISCONSIN. County Court for Rock County.

In Probate.

Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court to be held in and for said County, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday, being the 14th day of October, 1921, at 9 o'clock A. M., the following matter will be heard and considered:

The application of Amelia May Wenden to admit to Probate the Last Will and Testament of Samuel Wenden, late of the City of Janesville, in said County, deceased, and for the appointment of an Executor of said Estate.

Dated Sept. 6, 1921.

By the Court: CHARLES L. RIFIELD, County Judge.

Charles H. Lange, Attorney for Petitioner.

STATE OF WISCONSIN

Circuit Court for Rock County. Plaintiff, Orpha Hollis.

vs. Defendant, Elmer Hollis.

The State of Wisconsin to the said defendant:

You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty days after service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the above entitled action in the court aforesaid; and in case of your failure so to do judgment will be rendered against you according to the demands of the complaint, which has been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court at Janesville, Wisconsin.

CHARLES H. LANGE, Plaintiff's Attorney.

Post Office address: 415 Hayes Block, Janesville, Wisconsin.

STATE OF WISCONSIN

In Circuit Court for Rock County. Plaintiff, Albert J. Dorsey.

vs. William J. Mosher and Mary Mosher, his wife, John D. Mosher, Ben Pratt, Ada Mitchell, Harry Gardner, W. H. Dorsey, and Roger G. Cunningham, as Administrator, deceased.

Defendants.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That by virtue and in pursuance of the order of sale made and entered on the 17th day of August, 1921, in the above entitled action, the undersigned, Roger G. Cunningham, as Administrator, do hereby offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the western front door of the Rock County Court House in the City of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, on the 22nd day of October, 1921, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, the following described real estate lying and being in the City of Janesville, County of Rock and State of Wisconsin, to-wit:

All of those parts of Lots Six (6) and Seven (7), in Block Four (4), of Coolman's Subdivision of a part of Smith & Dalley's Addition to Janesville in Rock County, Wisconsin, that lies Southwesterly of a line running Northwesterly and Southeastwesterly through the center of said Block Four (4) and parallel to Franklin Street, excepting that portion of said Lot Six (6) described as follows: Commencing at the Southern corner of said Lot Six (6); and running thence Northwesterly along the Western line of said Lot Six (6) 48 feet; thence at right angles and parallel with the Southeastwesterly side of said Lot Six (6) 15 feet; thence Northwesterly along the Southeastwesterly side of said Lot to the place of beginning together with the privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging.

Terms of sale will be for cash.

Dated September 8th, 1921.

CASH WHITTLE, Sheriff of Rock County, Wisconsin.

Jeffries, Mount, Oestreich, Avery & Wood, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

See Our Window Display

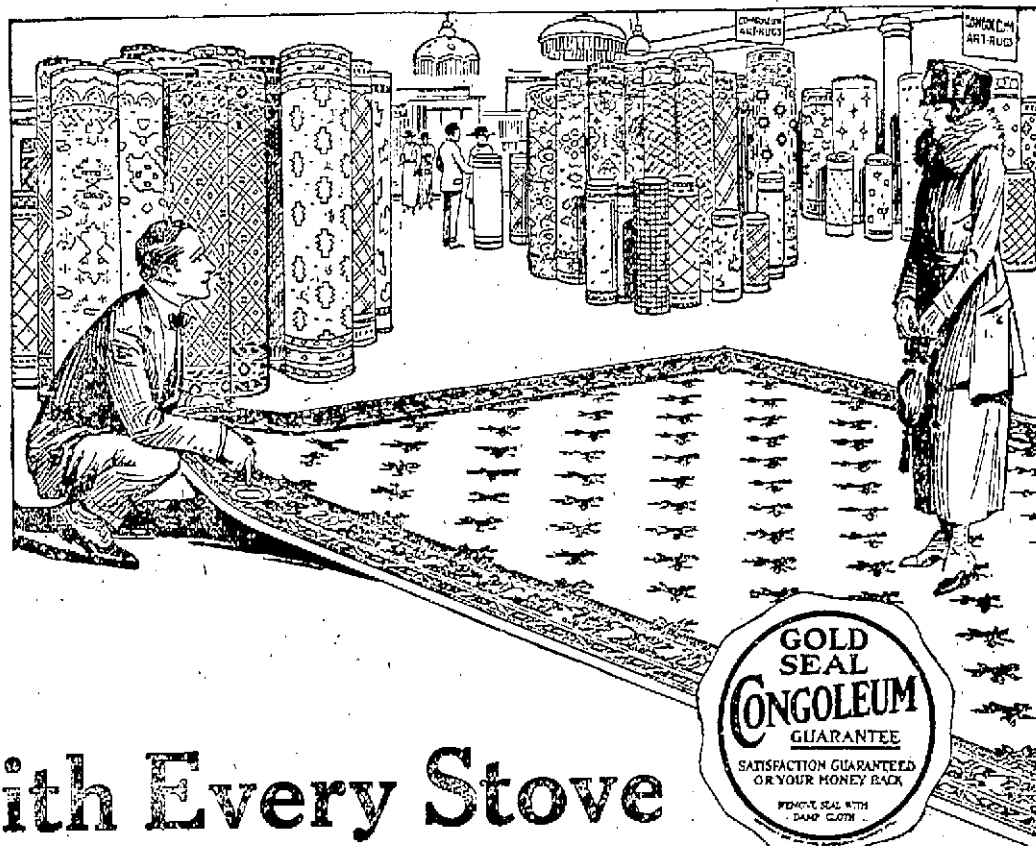

FREE

This handsome genuine Gold Seal Congoleum Art Rug, 6x9 size, regular advertised price

$9.75

Free With Every Stove

SUBSTANTIAL PRICE REDUCTIONS

—Delivers Any Buck's To Your Home.

Starting Thursday Big Factory Demonstration Sale of BUCK'S Stoves and Ranges

OPENING Our New Stove Department The Most Complete Dept. in Janesville

$5 Cash Delivers Any Buck's at Once.

Liberal Allowance For Your Old Stove.

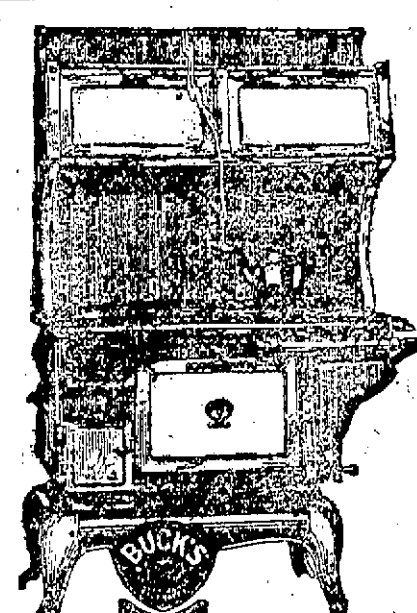

Any range—or hot blast heater—regardless of price—will be delivered to your home on payment of only $5—and with convenient terms—no interest.

Your old fuel-wasting stove accepted in part payment for a new fuel-saving Buck's. Your chance to get rid of the obsolete stove that may soon need costly repairs. Your chance to get a Buck's at unheard of terms. And a $9.75 genuine Gold Seal Congoleum Rug, size 6x9, absolutely free!

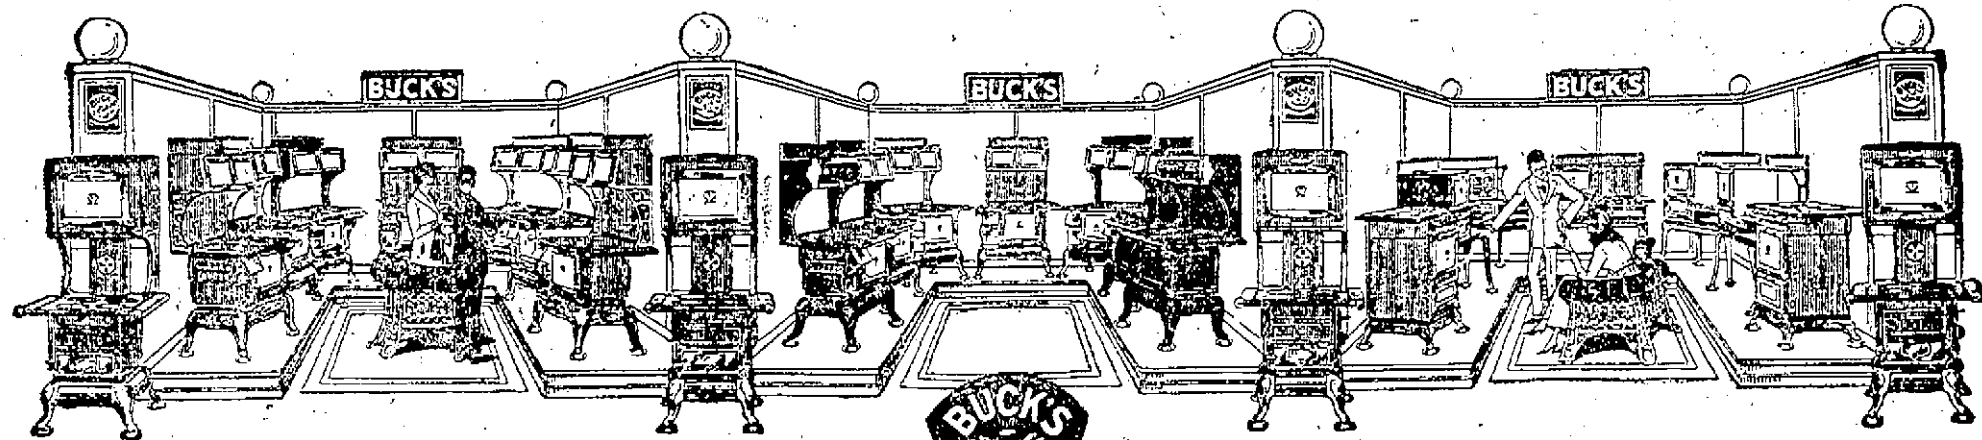

Buck's Save Food, Fuel, Time, Labor and Money

Valuable improvements never before combined in a range give you the most helpful, practical and economical cooking machine. See the Sanitary Porcelain Enameled Ranges that eliminate stove blackening!

Buck's Stoves and Ranges, with ordinary care, will last a life-time! Mr. N. A. Winter, factory expert, now here. Come tomorrow!

Buck's Model Combination Range

Our New Stove Department

As It Appears Today.

COME OVER TO OUR HOUSE

LEATH'S

202—204 W. Milwaukee St.

All Stoves Connected FREE! We install your stove so it will give satisfaction